THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Creating exceptional experiences for a lifetime.

In January of 1785 — two years after the Revolutionary War — the Georgia legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia. In founding the nation's first state university, the legislature also gave birth to the American system of public higher education. Over the past 220 years, Georgia and its university have grown together as partners in a burgeoning prosperity that has made the University a fast-track contender for educational pre-eminence. With more than 33,400 students, a work force of more than 9,000 and an annual budget of over $1.4 billion, the University of Georgia is Georgia's largest, oldest and most comprehensive educational institution. Widely recognized for excellence in instruction, research and public service, the University has moved into the ranks of America's foremost public universities.

According to the Open Doors 2012 list, Georgia ranked fifth in the nation in the number of students who participate in summer and other short-term study abroad programs.

The University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine was ranked 9th in the most recent U.S. News and World Report ranking of colleges of veterinary medicine.

13

The UGA school of law is ranked 13th among the top public law school's in the nation, according to U.S. News and World Report's 2014 edition of America's Best Graduate Schools

14

Kiplinger Magazine ranks UGA 15th in its 2013 list of the "100 Best Values in Public Colleges."

19

U.S. News & World Report ranks the Terry College's BBA program 19th among public business schools.

20

U.S. News & World Report's 2013 "Best Colleges" edition has UGA ranked 21st among public universities.

Southeastern Conference Media Information

SEC statistics, schedules and other information is available on the conference's official website www.SECsports.com.

Directions to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium From Atlanta (I-85)

Travel on I-85 North to exit 106, which is GA 316. Proceed east on GA 316 for approximately 40 miles. Take a right onto the Athens Perimeter (Loop 10) traveling east. (Do not exit off of GA 316 at the Athens/Monroe exit.) Continue until you see signs for the Athens Perimeter. For reference purposes, there is a sign for UGA and a Home Depot at the junction of GA 316 and the Athens Perimeter. After approximately four miles on the Athens Perimeter, exit onto Milledge Ave. (#6). Take a right onto Milledge Ave. Travel one mile on Milledge Ave. and the Soccer-Softball Complex will be on the right. Parking is available at the complex.

Mission Statement

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Standard of Excellence

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 81-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2013-14 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured seven national titles and six national runner-up finishes. The SEC has won consecutive national championships in equestrian, men's golf, gymnastics and women's swimming and diving. Since 1990, the SEC has won 163 team national championships for an average of more than six per year.

Florida's second consecutive gymnastics national title was the fourth straight for the league and 198th overall. The Georgia equestrian team brought home the national title marking the 13th consecutive year that a team currently in the SEC captured the title. Alabama won its second consecutive national championship in the sport of men's golf. Georgia's women's swimming team captured its sixth national title and second in a row. The Florida softball team prevailed in an all SEC final to win its first championship and second for the league.

Texas A&M won the league's 18th championship in women's outdoor track & field. Vanderbilt won the baseball title, the league's fourth in the last six years.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in nine of its 21 sponsored sports and in the top five in 13 of the 21 sports. Ten SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Auburn participating in the BCS Championship. Three men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament and eight women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament. The SEC had 10 teams advance to postseason play in baseball with Ole Miss and Vanderbilt advancing to the College World Series. With 178 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the seven team championships, 71 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 555 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-America Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with more than 3,100 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, all 14 SEC schools placed in the top 55 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a second-place finish. Texas A&M placed 10th while Kentucky was 11th; Georgia finished 16th, Alabama 17th, LSU 24th, Arkansas 28th, Auburn 34th, South Carolina 35th, Tennessee 40th, Vanderbilt 45th, Missouri 46th, Mississippi State 52nd and Ole Miss 54th.

Jere W. Morehead University President

Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd president on July 1, 2013, having previously served as UGA's senior vice president for academic affairs and provost since 2010.

President Morehead's career covers a wide range of faculty and administrative roles. Prior to 2010, he served UGA in several key administrative assignments, including vice president for instruction, vice provost for academic affairs, associate provost and director of the Honors Program, and acting executive director of legal affairs. From 2003 to 2010, he served as the University's Faculty Athletics Representative.

As UGA President, he also serves as chair of the Georgia Athletic Association Board of Directors, chair of the UGA Research Foundation, a UGA Foundation trustee and a UGA Real Estate Foundation trustee. He has been appointed to a one-year term on the Committee of Research Intensive Public Universities by the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities, and is included in Georgia Trend's 2014 Most Influential list.

President Morehead is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as editor-in-chief of the American Business Law Journal and previously held several other editorial board positions with the ABLJ.

He directed the UGA Law School's Advocacy Program from 1986 to 1995 at a time when the moot court teams he coached won international, national, regional and state championships. In 1995, he served as a visiting professor of business law at the University of Michigan.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award — UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence — the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award.

Morehead is a native of Lakeland, Florida. He moved with his family to Atlanta as a teenager, and enrolled at Georgia State University after graduating from high school at the age of 16. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1977. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1977, where he graduated with a juris doctor degree at the age of 23 in 1980. After graduation, he served as an assistant United States attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986. He is the first alumnus of UGA to be named president since Dr. Fred Davison in 1967.

Greg McGarity J. Reid Parker Director Of Athletics

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida.

Since that time, McGarity has injected a program of imagination and innovation into the Georgia Athletic Association with emphasis on exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas of competition, academics, and service.

Among the many initiatives are implementation of a nutrition program for all sports, greater emphasis on customer service as well as community service, scoreboard upgrades enhancing the in-game experience for guests and patrons in all sports, and development of leadership programs fostering staff development. In addition, he has encouraged the experimentation of new ideas such as moving volleyball competition to Stegeman Coliseum and helping bring a sold-out concert (Jason Aldean, 65,000) to Sanford Stadium for the first time in stadium history. He was also instrumental in development and implementation along with Nike of a new brand identity program which brings consistency in use of colors, logos, lettering and numerals to Georgia sports teams.

He was named recipient of the 2013 Tom Osborne Award presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA) for special achievement and contributions to advanced-practice sports nutrition. McGarity was appointed as the athletic director's representative to the SEC Executive Committee in 2013. A 1976 graduate of UGA's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication, McGarity is a 2012 inductee into the Grady Fellowship, a recognition program to honor those whose influence, achievements and service to the media professions have enhanced the reputation of the Grady College. He was also appointed in 2012 to the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, a position he will hold through 2016.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $99 million. Since becoming Director of Athletics, Georgia teams have won national championships in women's swimming and diving (2013 and '14) and equestrian (2014) and SEC championships in men's tennis (2011, '13, and '14), women's tennis (2013), women's tennis SEC Tournament ('14), women's swimming and diving (2011, '12, '13, '14), men's tennis SEC Tournament (2012 and '13), and two SEC eastern division titles in football (2011 and 2012). During that time 18 different Georgia teams have been ranked in the nation's top 20 and 10 in the top ten. Georgia's standing in the Learfield Director's Cup, which annually measures athletic teams success in NCAA championships, has improved from 20th in 2011 to 10th in 2013.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as both an associate and senior associate athletic director during his tenure. His duties at Florida included assisting the athletic director in daily operations of the department, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches, among other areas. McGarity was involved in the planning and supervision of several construction projects, including the expansion of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and the William Heavener Football Complex.

McGarity was a letterman on the 1973 Bulldog tennis team and following graduation began his professional career at UGA. After serving as a student assistant from 1973-77, he held positions as assistant sports information director and head women's tennis coach (1977-82), administrative assistant (1982-88), and assistant athletic director for facilities and event management (1988-92).

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Georgia.

Jack Turner Stadium

The Georgia softball team will play its 12th season in its multi-million dollar softball stadium in 2015. The facility holds close to 1,400 fans and features the best amenities possible. The Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host seven NCAA Regionals and four NCAA Super Regionals since its inception in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugout are connected via tunnel to locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, and the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built as well. The press box has suites for radio, television, media and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

Jack Turner

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999, where served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC and Gridiron. As an athlete he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force and after serving his country embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included:

Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund), Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association, Member of the board of the UGA Athletic Association, Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee, Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee, Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships), Founding member and partner in the President's Club, Member of the Heritage Society

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Distinction," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

2015 Season Outlook

The 2015 Bulldogs look to build off of last year's success

Head Coach Lu Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs enter the 2015 season looking to build off of the momentum from a 2014 campaign that saw them win the program's first-ever Southeastern Conference Tournament, earn the No. 4 National Seed and advance to a NCAA Super Regional for the seventh time in program history.

Georgia returns an impressive core that includes all but one everyday starter. Highlighting the returners are All-Americans Alex Hugo and Chelsea Wilkinson and All-SEC and NFCA All-Region selection Paige Wilson. The Bulldogs also return Tina Iosefa, Anna Swafford and Samantha LaZear, each of whom was named to the NFCA All-Region Team last year.

Staying true to Harris-Champer coached teams, the lineup is set up to be an explosive one. The Bulldogs, who finished third in the nation in home runs last year, return 83 of their 93 home runs. Hugo looks to continue to swing a strong bat after hitting a NCAA-best 25 home runs during her sophomore season. In addition to power, the Bulldogs will also have the ability to hit for average. Georgia returns six everyday players who hit over .300 for the season in 2014, led by Wilson who finished the year with a team-best .387 batting average and an on-base percentage of .426.

Wilkinson, who was Georgia's go to pitcher last season, returns for her junior season. Wilkinson finished 2014 with a team-best 2.10 ERA. She also had a team-leading 299 strikeouts, good for second-most in a season in program history. She became just the second player in Georgia history to throw a no-hitter in the NCAA Tournament with a 8-0, five inning win over NC State that sealed the Bulldogs' bid to the Super Regional.

In addition to the returners, Harris-Champer has a wealth of talent making its debut in Athens this year. The newcomers, seven in all, include two pitchers, two outfielders, two infielders and a catcher. Several newcomers saw significant action already for Georgia when the team defeated the National Pro Fastpitch USSSA Pride in the fall.

Not only will the team feature several new faces, but the coaching staff will as well, as Tony Baldwin and Rick Pauly have joined the program. It is a return trip to Georgia for Baldwin, who spent two seasons as a volunteer coach under Harris-Champer before spending two seasons at North Carolina. Pauly comes to Georgia after three seasons at USC Upstate. Also joining the staff for 2015 is volunteer coach Tom Hazelhurst, who spent two seasons as the volunteer coach at Illinois.

The 2015 schedule features 25 home games, including Southeastern Conference series against Alabama, Arkansas, Missouri and Florida. The squad will travel to take on SEC foes Mississippi State, Tennessee, Ole Miss and Kentucky for a total of 24 SEC contests. The 2015 slate also features 31 non-conference games, 23 games against 2014 NCAA Regional teams, 13 games against teams that made it to the Super Regional Round of the 2014 NCAA Tournament and six teams that were ranked in the final poll of 2014. The Bulldogs will also host both participants of the 2014 Women's College World Series Final.

Lu HARRIS-CHAMPER

Head Coach

15th Season at Georgia

Overall: 896-312-1 • At Georgia: 687-236 • SEC: 246-129
Western Illinois, '89

Lu Harris-Champer is entering her 15th season as the head coach of the Georgia softball team. Under her direction, the program has reached unprecedented heights, including 13-straight trips to the NCAA Championships, two Southeastern Conference Championships, one SEC Tournament Championship, seven NCAA Regional Championships, two NCAA Super Regional Championships and back-to-back final four showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010.

Harris-Champer is 687-236 in her time with the Bulldogs that includes a 246-129 record in the Southeastern Conference. She has also established Georgia as one of the elite programs in the nation. Under her guidance, Georgia has had 22 NFCA All-Americans, 13 Easton All-Americans, 68 All-SEC recognitions, 47 NFCA All-Region selections, 21 SEC All-Tournament honorees, 25 SEC Players of the Week, 25 SEC Pitchers of the Week, 14 SEC Freshmen of the Week, one SEC Player of the Year, two SEC Pitchers of the Year, one SEC Freshman of the Year and has been named the SEC Coach of the Year twice.

Under her leadership, Georgia has been equally impressive off of the field. In her 14 seasons at the helm, Georgia has had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, 72 members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, 24 members of the SEC First Year Academic Honor Roll, 11 players named to the SEC Community Service Team and three players inducted into the UGA Student-Athlete Leadership Academy.

In her 14th season with the Bulldogs, Harris-Champer led the team to unprecedented heights when the team won the 2014 SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs beat eventual national champion Florida and national runner-up Alabama in the tournament before handing Kentucky a 5-2 loss to claim the title. It was the first-ever tournament title for the Bulldogs. With the win, Georgia earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time. The SEC Tournament title propelled the team to a No. 4 national seed, allowing it to host both the Regional and Super Regional. Georgia finished the year with a 49-15 that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. In addition to the team successes, Harris-Champer coached several players to individual honors. Alex Hugo, the 2014 NCAA Home Run Champion, was named a First Team NFCA All-American, to the All-SEC First Team, the All-SEC Tournament Team and the All-Southeast Region team. Chelsea Wilkinson was recognized as a Second Team All-American, the SEC Tournament MVP, a member of the All-Southeast Region Team, the All-SEC team and was named the SEC Pitcher of the Week twice. Additionally, Paige Wilson was an All-Southeast Region selection and named to the All-SEC and SEC All-Tournament team. In all, the Bulldogs had seven members named to the All-Southeast Region team, as Tina Iosefa, Geri Ann Glasco, Samantha LaZear and Anna Swafford each earned the honor.

In 2013, Harris-Champer led Georgia to its 12th NCAA Tournament. The 2013 Bulldogs finished the season with a 40-21 record that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC, seven wins over teams ranked in the top-25, sweeps of four SEC series and a two-game sweep of Georgia Tech. Harris-Champer coached four players to All-SEC honors, as Wilson and Kaylee Puailoa were each named First Team All-SEC and Glasco, Puailoa and Wilkinson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Glasco was named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, marking the first time in program history that a Georgia player received Freshman of the Year honors. Wilson and Wilkinson were also named to the SEC All-Tournament team. In addition to All-SEC honors, Puailoa, Glasco and Wilson were also named the NFCA All-Region Teams, with Glasco going on to earn Third Team NFCA All-America honors.

The 2012 season marked the 11th time that Harris-Champer has led a Bulldog softball squad to the NCAA postseason and the sixth time that Georgia advanced to a NCAA Super Regional. With a record of 45-17 that included a 17-11 mark in the SEC, the 2012 squad spent the majority of the season ranked among the top-15 team in the nation and earned 13 wins over team ranked in the top-25. In the NCAA Tournament, Georgia was awarded the 10th overall national seed. The Bulldogs swept the NCAA Athens Regional field, marking the sixth time that the team has claimed a regional title and advanced to the Knoxville Super Regional. Harris-Champer coached Kristyn Sandberg to First Team All-SEC honors, while Erin Arevalo was named to the All-SEC second team and Paige Wilson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team. In addition to conference honors, Sandberg and Arevalo earned All-American status, with Sandberg appearing on the second team and Arevalo earning a spot on the third team.

Harris-Champer's 2011 team posted a 51-14 overall record and advancing to the NCAA Super Regional round of play. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 17-9 and finished third in the Eastern Division and also made a run in the SEC Tournament advancing to the championship game. Georgia spent four weeks during the 2011 season ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association poll and one week atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, which marked the first No. 1 rankings in school history. Harris-Champer led three Bulldogs to All-American honors, as Alisa Goler and Megan Wiggins were selected to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America Second Team. Goler and Taylor Schlopy were named Lowe's Senior CLASS All-Americans, while Goler was a Top 25 Finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2010, Harris-Champer's Georgia squad posted a 50-13 overall record advancing to the WCWS where they went 2-2 and reached the final four. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-8 and finished second in the Eastern Division. In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/NFCA poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll. Under Harris-Champer's guidance, Goler and Schlopy earned second-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors, while Schlopy also garnered ESPN.com All-America recognition and was named a top 25 finalist for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2009, Harris-Champer's Bulldogs were tabbed the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year after going 47-12 and advancing to their first-ever Women's College World Series appearance, where they went 3-2 and were one of the final four teams standings. The Bulldogs finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game) and 10th in batting average (.319). In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-7 to finish second in the Eastern Division and third overall. Georgia tied for the league lead in triples with 17 and its national-leading fielding percentage was the third-best in SEC history. Georgia finished the season ranked fourth in both the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN.com/USA Softball final polls. Goler and Schlopy were named first-team All-Americans. Goler was also a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy was chosen to the USA Softball Japan Cup Team and helped the Americans win Gold.

In 2008, the Georgia softball program finished with an overall record of 46-24, an SEC mark of 14-14 (3rd Eastern Division) and advanced to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Softball Championship. With an 18-player roster consisting of fifty percent freshmen and 12 underclassmen, the prospect of what to expect from the onset of the season was uncertain. The Bulldogs finished the season ranked No. 17 by USA Today/NFCA and No. 18 by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Harris-Champer recorded and surpassed 600 collegiate career coaching victories in 2008 as well as achieving and surpassing 400 wins at Georgia in her eight seasons with the team.

The Bulldogs concluded their 2007 campaign with an appearance in the championship game of the NCAA Lincoln Regional. The Bulldogs posted a 46-28 overall record and a 13-15 mark in conference action. Kellie Middleton became a two-time All-American after earning Second Team honors from Easton, which marked the sixth-consecutive year in which a Bulldog earned All-America honors.

Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs captured their third Southeastern Conference Eastern Division title en route to posting its fifth consecutive season of 54 or more wins in 2006. Overall, UGA tallied a 54-15 overall record and earned a berth in the NCAA Regionals. Harris-Champer secured her 500th career win on April 2 with a victory over Ole Miss. At the conclusion of the season, Georgia also set a school record after three student-athletes (Kellie Middleton, Jessica Doucette and Megan McAllister) earned All-America distinctions in 2006.

The 2005 season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Bulldogs as they earned their second conference championship in three years while appearing in the championship game of an NCAA Super Regional. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, Georgia posted a 26-4 record in Southeastern Conference play, tying the second-best mark in conference history. Michelle Green and Kim Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor as well.

The Bulldogs concluded the 2004 season with an appearance in the championship game of a NCAA Regional. The Bulldogs finished the season in the top-20 in several national statistics, including a third-place finish in team batting average (.329), six-place ranking in fielding percentage (.974) and a seventh-place finish in runs per game (5.72).

In 2003, the Bulldogs clinched the program's first SEC crown and earned its second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Regionals, capturing two wins in the tournament. At the conclusion of the 2003 season the Bulldogs led the SEC in 18 categories and were second in five more. Georgia tied two NCAA records, four SEC records and established 35 new Georgia records.

Harris-Champer took Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Softball Tournament in 2002, compiling a 59-17 record. The 59 wins ranked as the second-best in the nation in 2002. Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs started their season with a 24-game winning streak. By the end of the regular season, Georgia had finished second in both the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the Conference Tournament. Nicole Barber and Kim Wendland became Georgia's first two All-Americans in softball and were also named First Team All-SEC. Barber became the NCAA record holder for consecutive steals with 73.

In 2001, Harris-Champer helped Georgia to a 33-win season while setting several team records along the way. She also picked up sweeps against Georgia Tech and Florida, and taking two of three from Tennessee.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Harris-Champer spent three seasons as the head coach at Southern Miss where she led the Lady Eagles to two Women's College World Series appearances. For her efforts in the 1999 season, Harris-Champer was named the 1999 South Region Coach of the Year. In addition to her honors, Southern Miss pitcher Courtney Blades won the 2000 Honda Broderick Award as the nation's top player.

In 1997, Harris-Champer served as head coach of the Orlando Wahoos of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League. She led Orlando to a 60-13 record and earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding her team to regular-season and tournament titles.

Harris-Champer was head coach at Nicholls State in 1996 and 1997, leading the school to impressive records of 46-19 and 48-23, respectively. She also helped the team to a pair of NCAA Regional berths, a Southland Conference regular-season and tournament championship, as well as the finals of the NCAA Regional. Harris was tabbed 1996 Southland Conference and South Region Coach of the Year and finished third in National Coach of the Year balloting.

Prior to her stint at Nicholls, Harris-Champer spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Western Illinois. During that span, the Westwinds were 156-98, won the 1992 Gateway Conference tournament, the 1993 Mid-Continent Conference regular season and tournament crowns and the 1996 Mid-Continent Conference West Division title.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Harris-Champer played three seasons at Western Illinois after transferring from Mesa (Calif.) Community College. She is married to Jerry Champer, the associate head coach for the six-time national championship Georgia swimming and diving team.

Lu and Jerry have three children: Twins Jenna & Emma, born Aug. 2, 2004 and Mya, born May 23, 2006.

Tony BALDWIN
Assistant Coach
1st Season at Georgia
Butler, '95

Tony Baldwin was hired in June 2014 as an assistant coach for the Georgia softball team. Baldwin is no stranger to the Bulldog program, having spent two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach from 2011-12. Baldwin returns to Georgia after spending two seasons as the assistant coach at North Carolina.

At UNC, Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. Last year, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC team, including one first team selection and two second team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top-50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003 at Dartmouth College, where he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. At Dartmouth he was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001 and 2004.

He also was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1994-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998 and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Ind., Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-2012.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children, Ella, Abby, Brady and Katie.

Rick PAULY
Assistant Coach
1st Season at Georgia
Wisconsin-Stout, '72

Rick Pauly joined the Georgia softball staff in the summer of 2014, having spent the previous three years as a volunteer assistant coach at USC Upstate.

In his three years at USC Upstate, Pauly coached two A-Sun Freshmen of the Year and last season coached the A-Sun Pitcher of the Year, an NFCA All-Region selection and two First Team A-Sun selections. Last season, he helped USC Upstate to the fifth-best ERA (1.55) in the nation on the way to a NCAA Regional appearance. Additionally, three Spartan pitchers had sub-2.00 ERAs.

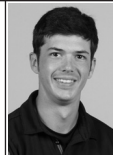

Prior to his time at USC Upstate, Pauly spent one season as the pitching coach at South Carolina. He also served as the head coach at Spartanburg Methodist College from 2004-09, leading the Lady Pioneers to back-to-back Junior College World Series appearances in 2008 and 2009.

In addition to his coaching experience, Pauly has a wealth of playing experience, playing with the nationally recognized ASA National Champions Madison Farm. As a player, Pauly competed in 11 ASA or ISC National and World Tournaments and also competed with Madison Farm at the U.S. Olympic Festival Games in 1987 and 1991. While still competing, Pauly was a State ASA Fastpitch Player Representative in Wisconsin and was also instrumental in the formation of the Western Wisconsin ISC Travel League. He is a former ASA Men's Fastpitch All-American.

Since the completion of his playing days, Pauly has been involved in coaching fastpitch at all levels of the game. Focusing primarily on pitching, he has coached at the 14U, 16U, 18U and 18 Gold levels of travel ball, spending many years with the nationally ranked Lil' Saints of Phoenix, Ariz. While in Arizona, Pauly was a volunteer assistant coach in the Arizona high school ranks, leading nationally ranked programs at both Mountain Point and Desert Vista high schools in Phoenix. Upon moving to South Carolina, he coached travel ball, including helping start the Carolina Elite organization. He has remained an assistant with the Elite since the organization was founded in 2007.

Pauly has also served as the President of the Fastpitch Division of the Mountain Pointe Little League Association and the Ahwatukee Little League Association.

Pauly and his wife, Joan, have been married for 35 years. Their daughter, Sarah, a former All-American at Texas-Corpus Christi, splits time living in Florida and Japan as a professional pitcher and their son, Jesse, is an Animation Architect living in Phoenix, Ariz.

Tom HAZELHURST
Volunteer Assistant Coach
1st Season at Georgia
Arizona, '11

Tom Hazelhurst enters his first season as the volunteer coach for the Georgia softball team.

Prior to coming to Georgia, the Sleepy Hollow, Ill., native spent one season as the National Pro Fastpitch Broadcast Designer for games that aired on CBS Sports.

No stranger to coaching, Hazelhurst spent two seasons as the volunteer assistant coach at Illinois.

In the summer of 2012, Hazelhurst moved to the pro ranks, serving as the Interim Director of Operations for the Carolina Diamonds.

After an all-conference baseball career in high school, Hazelhurst made the transition to softball in college, serving as the student manager of the Arizona softball team for three seasons. In those three years, Hazelhurst was part of a program that amassed a 141-48 record and made three appearances in the NCAA postseason, including two trips to the Women's College World Series.

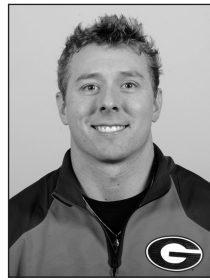

Hazelhurst earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arizona in 2011.

Softball Camp

The Georgia Softball Camp, conducted on the campus of the University of Georgia, is annually one of the finest camps of its kind in the country.

Directed by head coach Lu Harris-Champer, the sessions are aimed at providing the best coach-player ratio of any softball camp in operation. Assisted by members of the Georgia softball team, the goal of the instructional staff is to assist each camper to improve to her highest level of ability. Harris-Champer and her staff want each camper to leave with the feeling that she has bettered herself and her softball skills by participating in the camp.

Harris-Champer and her staff annually conduct two camp sessions. Both sessions are for young women ages 8-18 who have the option of staying overnight or just the day. All camp activities will take place at either the Turner Athletic Complex located on S. Milledge Ave., the home of Bulldog softball, or on the University's Intramural Fields. Campers will have access to the main playing stadium, batting cages/bullpen areas in right field and left field territories, locker room, video assessment center and the indoor training facility.

Both sessions are expected to reach maximum capacity very quickly! For applications and information write or call: Georgia Bulldog Softball Camp c/o Coach Lu Harris-Champer; P.O. Box 1472, Athens, GA 30603; (706) 425-3350.

Scholarship Endowments

The Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program was instituted to allow supporters of the University of Georgia Athletic Association to invest in the educational opportunities of UGA student-athletes. The program is vital to the future of Georgia Athletics by providing the long-term solution to keeping pace with escalating expenses.

A gift to establish a scholarship provides income towards funding a scholarship each year and permanently memorializes the donor or any individual in whose honor the scholarship is named. A full scholarship is endowed through a gift of $200,000.

These and other commitments represent the foundation of the Georgia Athletic Program's future. For more information on the Scholarship Endowment Program or other giving opportunities, please contact the Development Office in the UGA Athletic Association at 706-542-9220.

2014 Season Recap

The Georgia softball team continued its tradition of success in 2014, advancing to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history. On the way to its Super Regional appearance, the Bulldogs made history, taking home the program's first ever Southeastern Conference Tournament title over three unforgettable nights in Columbia, S.C.

Georgia finished the season with a 49-15 record that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. The Bulldogs also had 13 wins over ranked teams, including six wins over teams that were ranked in the top 10. For their efforts during the regular season and the SEC Tournament, the Bulldogs were selected at the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament, allowing them to host both a Regional and a Super Regional. It was the seventh time that Georgia was selected to host a Regional and the fourth time that it hosted a Super Regional.

The Bulldogs opened their season with a 22-2 record that included wins over eventual NCAA Tournament participants James Madison, NC State and UAB. Georgia continued its hot streak at the start of SEC play, sweeping Mississippi State to open league play. The Bulldogs went on to win series against Texas A&M, South Carolina and Auburn before taking a 10-2, six-inning win over No. 7 Alabama in Tuscaloosa. The momentum continued into the final regular-season series when Georgia swept No. 10 Kentucky.

After posting a 15-9 mark in SEC play, which tied for the third-best record among league schools, Georgia was awarded the No. 5 seed in the SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs had the daunting task of facing fifth-ranked Florida and sixth-ranked Alabama to get to the title game. Georgia was up to the task, posting a 2-0 shutout win over Florida before handing Alabama a 5-3 loss. The Bulldogs would face Kentucky for the fourth time in a week for an SEC Tournament title, guaranteeing a first ever winner. As it had for much of the season, Georgia relied on the talented right arm of sophomore Chelsea Wilkinson and timely hitting by a vaunted lineup. Wilkinson shut down the Wildcat offense, carrying a one-hitter into the seventh inning and allowing just two runs on three hits and struck out nine batters in the complete-game performance. Geri Ann Glasco provided the big hits for Georgia, going 3-for-4 with a home run, a run scored and two RBI. When the final out was recorded, the Bulldogs were the SEC Tournament Champions for the first time in school history. Following the win, Georgia had four players named to the SEC All-Tournament Team: Wilkinson, Paige Wilson, Glasco and Alex Hugo. Wilkinson, who went 3-0 during the tournament was named the 2014 SEC Tournament MVP.

Georgia was selected at the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and hosted Chattanooga, UAB and NC State in the NCAA Athens Regionals. The Bulldogs handed Chattanooga a 9-0 loss in the first game of the Regional before suffering a 5-4 loss to NC State in game two. After the loss, Georgia needed to win three-straight elimination games to advance to the Super Regional. The Bulldogs responded with three convincing wins, including two shutout performances, a no hitter and a run-rule victory. In the three elimination games, Georgia outscored its opponents 20-1. Georgia's 8-0, five inning win over NC State sealed Georgia's bid to the Super Regional. Wilkinson tossed a no-hitter in the game, making her just the third Bulldog to ever throw a no-hitter in postseason play.

The Bulldogs welcomed Baylor to Athens for the Super Regional but were unable to advance to the Women's College World Series for the third time in program history, as Baylor took two games from the Bulldogs.

Along with the team accomplishments, Georgia had three First Team All-SEC selections (Hugo, Wilson and Wilkinson), four SEC All-Tournament selections (Glasco, Hugo, Wilson and Wilkinson), seven NFCA All-Region selections (Sam LaZear, Anna Swafford, Tina Iosefa, Glasco, Hugo, Wilson, Wilkinson) and two NFCA All-Americans (Hugo and Wilkinson). The seven NFCA All-Region honors was a program best and the most by an SEC team this season, the three First Team All-SEC selections were the most first team honorees since the 2010 season and Hugo's All-American selection marked the first time since 2009 that a Bulldog had been named a First Team All-American.

*From the hills of Georgia's northland beams thy noble brow, And the sons of Georgia rising pledge with scared vow, Neath the pine trees stately shadow spread thy riches-pow. And thy sons, dear Alma Mater, will thy treasures share.
And thy daughters proudly join thee, take their rightful place, side by side into the future, equal dreams embrace. Through the ages, Alma Mater, We will look to thee, thou the fairest of the Southland, Georgia's Varsity. Alma Mater, thee we honor, love and loyal be, ever crowned with praise and glory, Georgia, hail to thee.*

UGA Arch

University of Georgia Facts and Figures

- The University of Georgia is the oldest state-chartered university in America.
- UGA's College of Veterinary Medicine offers a doctorate degree, as well as post-doctoral training of interns and residents and is ranked 12th among the nation's veterinary schools.
- The University of Georgia's Grady College of Journalism and Mass Communication is home of the Peabody Awards, one of the nation's premier honors in broadcasting.
- East Campus Village, a complex of four student residence halls and associated amenities located on East Campus near the Ramsey Student Center, provides housing for 1,200 students. A dining hall is also part of the complex.
- UGA students consistently win some of the top scholarships award to American undergraduates. UGA has had six Rhodes Scholars in the last 10 years, and students have also received Goldwater, Truman, Gates-Cambridge, Marshall and Mellon scholarships.
- The $43 million Student Learning Center is one of the largest and most technologically advanced teaching facilities at any American university. The 200,000-square foot building contains 26 computer wired classrooms with a total of 2,240 seats; an electronic library which seats 2,000 and has 500 computer workstations and a reading room and numerous student and meeting rooms.
